Two Brothers Executed in Tabriz Central Prison

Kurdistan Human Rights Network : Today, Wednesday November 25, Iranian authorities executed two brothers named Reza and Nuraldin Pour Nader in Tabriz central prison. They were sentenced to death by a court for drug-related charges, a reliable source said.

According to this source: The brothers were from the city of Tabriz and had been in jail since 2010.

The source added: "as the number of prisoners on death row are about 600 persons, the Iranian judicial authorities has increased executions of these prisoners. In the last two weeks 8 prisoners were executed in this prison."
