Three other members of the Central Council, Bahareh Hedayat, Mehdi Arabshahi and Farid Hashemi, were summoned on 29 November to appear before the Revolutionary Court on 2 December. Another member of the Central Council, Abbas Hakimzadeh, was arrested last week and remains imprisoned.   Milad Asadi  Asadi is a student of Khajenasir University, whose authorities suspended him from his studies on the day of his arrest. In April 2009, in an interview with the Campaign, he explained the concerns of the Student Union to Foster Unity as "students' collective rights, our right to study, our right to free expression, the freedom of association and assembly, which all the students all around the world are enjoying." "The arrests of Milad Asadi and at least 90 students over the past three weeks are illegal under international law, and deserve scrutiny by United Nations Special Rapporteurs as per the UN Resolution soon to be approved by the General Assembly," said Aaron Rhodes, a spokesperson for the Campaign. "While the arrests are clearly an attempt to decapitate the student movement, violations of their fundamental rights are unlikely to deter Iranian students from demanding them," he added. Amirkabir News reported that Babak Ghiyasi, an agricultural student at Razi University in Kermanshah, was arrested on 1 December. He has been banned from entering the University, and three days following the end of the ban, as he was entering a ceremony of honoring students of distinction, he was kidnapped by unknown persons believed to be security agents of the Revolutionary Guards. No information has given about his whereabouts. There has been no information released about numerous other students who were recently arrested and remain in jail. The authorities are also targeting human rights reporters to prevent the dissemination of news and information about recent arrests. On November 30, security and intelligence detained Saeed Kalanki and Saeed Jalalifar, two members of the Committee of the Human Rights Reporters which is one of the main organizations currently reporting on human rights violations. Jalalifar was expelled from Zanjan University last year. University officials, acting hand in hand with security forces, have stepped up their actions against students through university Disciplinary Committees, suspending and expelling student activists on what are considered spurious grounds. The Campaign has learned that on 1 December: 12 students in Orumieh University were summoned to the Disciplinary Committee; 10 students in Khajenasir University were summoned and suspended from their studies for 12 semesters; and 30 students were summoned in Ferdowsi University in Mash'had (5 students of this institution are in jail after they were arrested following demonstrations on 4 November). In addition, Mowj e Sabz reported that 12 students in Payam e nour University in Mash'had were suspended for a total of 18 semesters. Amirkabir University reported that 11 students were sentenced by the Disciplinary Committee; two were dismissed, and the others were suspended for a total of 12 semesters. Twenty-three students in Shahr Kurd University were also sentenced by the Disciplinary Committee. "It is deeply regrettable and a disgrace to the ideal of academic freedom when universities concede their independence and persecute students for their opinions and their legitimate activities," Rhodes said. The International Campaign for Human Rights in Iran calls for the immediate release of all illegally detained students and the cancellation of university disciplinary measures that have violated their right to education. ... They are bunch of COWARDS Arabe Kaseef.
It is already, All the universities around the world organized to support our Iranian students in Iran.
You bastard criminal regime, people done with you. With these arrest, you only encourage more people to be against you and make people more angry.
They don't know how many people who were supported them before the election, now they joined to our people.
They are digging their grave.

To the ugly monkeys of the Arab republic of IRI: You think you can intimidate us with your threats against our relatives in Iran? Well, you ugly monkeys are mmistaken! I just made a short survey contacting some 30 friends, asking them if they would continue their political activities against your criminal Arab republic, in spite of your recent threats against Iranians abroad, and guess what! All of them said yes! We will continue fighting the ugly filth which has occupied our country for the past 30 years, until we have you all behind bars. We will see to that you shall pay for every single one of your crimes! Kesafathaa!!!
