

Kurdish rebel attack kills 4 Iranian guards

The Sun (1837-1985); Sep 27, 1979; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Baltimore Sun, The (1837-1986)
pg. A6

Kurdish rebel attack kills 4 Iranian guards

Doc Number: KP000112

Tehran, Iran (Reuter)—Kurdish rebels yesterday attacked a jeep carrying Islamic revolutionary guards, killing four of them. The ambush occurred near Paveh, on the western border with Iraq, according to the Iranian state radio.

The incident was the latest in a series of clashes between government forces and Kurdish rebels, who are fighting a guerrilla war in the western mountains of Iran.

Tokyo water supply poisoned by leak

Tokyo (Reuter)—A ton of a solution containing enough poisonous hydrocyanic acid to kill 500,000 people has leaked from a factory into a river supplying the Japanese capital with nearly three-fourths of its water, a local government spokesman said yesterday.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.