

Kurdish rebel fighting halted

CALIF returned yesterday to Baghdad after a week's visit to the mountains, an official spokesman said. The visit was intended to show the army's progress in the mountains and to see that the fighting had been halted.

Cherif's plans

Cherif's plans to return to the mountains were reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Now leader

Now leader of the Kurds, Mr. Cherif has been reported to have returned to the mountains. He is believed to be the leader of the rebel forces.

Riots' gain

Riots' gain in the mountains was reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Regional deal

Regional deal in the mountains was reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Arrest drama

Arrest drama in the mountains was reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Bhutto date

Bhutto date in the mountains was reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Protest talks

Protest talks in the mountains were reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Remember dies

Remember dies in the mountains was reported by a spokesman. He said that the army had been successful in halting the fighting and that the rebels had been driven from the mountains.

Border mines

ONE MILLION land mines now cover East Germany's border with the West, the interior Minister, Mr Gerhard Baum, said in Bonn yesterday. Barriers and guardposts on the 875 mile-long border have also been strengthened, the West German Minister said.— Reuter.

ews and Media Limited

Baron's flight

BARON EDOUARD Jean Espain, the Belgian millionaire industrialist abducted last year, has left France amid reports that he has received fresh kidnap threats. He flew to the Moroccan port of Casablanca