

Kurds Hijack Jetliner

Los Angeles Times (1923-Current File); Sep 7, 1979;

ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Los Angeles Times (1881-1987)

pg. A1

Kurds Hijack Jetliner

ROME (AP)—Four gun-toting Kurdish commandos, dramatizing their minority's fight against the Ayatollah Ruhollah Khomeini's government in Iran, hijacked an Italian DC-8 jetliner today with 175 people on board, officials said. The gunmen released all but 34 of the passengers in Rome and demanded to be flown to Cuba, where a 95-nation nonaligned summit conference is being held.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.