Hi Anthony, Susan, and Aryeh,

I just spoke with Mehrangiz Kar, who confirms the following report -- issued, I'm pretty sure, by her daughter in Canada.

Sounds like he's not in very good shape -- and still has not been transferred to a hospital.

I am hoping it might be possible to contact the Swiss in Tehran and have them make official inquiries, intervene, press for medical attention, etc.

I'll be here in the office until about 1:45 today, but if you have any questions or need anything else, please feel free to contact Ivy Nevares at ivy@pen.org.

Thanks!

Larry

>URGENT: Siamak Pourzand had heart attack in the jail
>We are writing regarding Siamak Pourzand a 72 years Old Iranian journalist, >who has more than 50 years valuable background in social works and cultural >activities.
>His last position was managing The Cultural Centre of Tehran. He has been >kidnapped on November 24th 2001 in front of his sister house in Tehran at >10.00pm by couple of unknown people. He has been kept in an unknown jail >somewhere in Tehran for over 7 months up to now. After more than five >months his court started to be process .During his court several news have >been published in hardliner newspapers against him. His sister who visited >him couple of times before his court was reporting about his pour physical >and physiological situation.
>The extremist group newspapers which were reporting about his court, said
>that the defendant has confessed to his crimes and he has accepted that he >is absolutely guilty.
>There are many questions about his arrestment and the legal process of his >case which have never been answered. The original reason for his arrestment >is not clear yet. No body knows where they kept him for all last 7 months.
>He never had a chance to sign a contract with our family lawyer and the >court chose a lawyer for him who has never been in touch with us to get >more information and document. He has been forced to confess against >himself under unbelievable physical and mental torture. They made him to >say that he doesn't have any defense.
>This is more than 7 months that all human right organizations are working >on his case to get news about his situation. After over 40 days the court >issued the sentence on his case and charged him for 8 years imprison.
>His lawyer says that Pourzand doesn't want to appeal on the court decision.
>This is an important question that why he doesn't want to use his legal >right. It is very clear that he is not allowed to ask for appeal.
>This is not a right time to analyze his legal rights and human rights.
This >is very emergency situation that each single minute is important.
>The most urgent issue is his health situation now. He had a visit with >sister last Friday. His health condition was terrible and he was holding a >big napkin in front of his mounts during the visit and it means that there >was something wrong that he had to hide it from his sister. He seems so >weak and nervous.

>These all made us worry because he was under serious medication for more >than 10 years because of his heart and blood pressure problems. During last >7 months nobody let us to provide him those necessary medicines. He has >been kept in an isolate cell for over 7 months now without the basic >facilities.
> Unfortunately we got trustable news yesterday which said that during last >week he had heart attack. Also we heard that he couldn't get any kind of >health care services even in this emergency circumstance. Regarding his >heart problem background and all unfair and stressful situations that he >had during last 7 months and with considering his age, the situation is >very critical after this heart attack in the jail.
>Our request from all organization which is working on human right, is >taking an urgent action about Pourzand scary condition. He needs urgent >medical services. We are pleased to accept any expenses for transferring >him to a hospital and all other medical coverage will be paid by his >family. We are alerting that he is in an emergency situation and any delay >could be too late.
>Respectfully reminding that every single minute is important to avoiding >another tragedy happening in an unknown jail against an old journalist who >works with his love for improving the culture and expanding the democracy >in his society.
>Sincerely
>Pourzand's Family
